

PASTOR
Sabrina
MCKENZIE

TV

Business
Woman

Pastor

PASTOR
Sabrina
MCKENZIE

Pastor Sabrina McKenzie has a passion for Winning Souls and is an advocate for Women and Children. Her life is an excellent example of, "To whom much is given, much is also required."

Blessed with an abundance of spiritual gifts, McKenzie is committed to positively impacting the world. Her multifaceted platform is a compelling combination of the arts, advocacy, mass media and, of course, ministry. She is a celebrated Pastor, business woman, and television personality.

A native of Queens, New York, Pastor McKenzie is the Founder and the Executive Producer of Dancing Preachers International and the Founder of the Liturgical Dance Day. She is perhaps, best known for her role in creating one of the most celebrated liturgical dance ministries, as founder of the International Dance Commission (IDC), which is now enjoying international acclaim. Under her leadership, the organization has grown from 40 members to over 2,780 members worldwide (which includes 40 chapters.) Her undeniable skills and passion for the arts, along with her commitment to the body of Christ, accordingly caused her to also be widely and affectionately known as The Dancing Preacher

Pastor Sabrina earned her undergraduate degree from Morris Brown College in Political Science, and a Master of Divinity degree (M.Div.) in Pastoral Care from the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), receiving an award for Outstanding Achievers. She served the Richardson Fellowship as the Vice President, Junior Class by overseeing the political action committee. Pastor is a graduate of Morris Brown College, Greater Atlanta Small Businesses, Business Now and the Interdenominational Theological Center. Pastor completed the Chaplains' Program at Emory Hospital in Decatur, Georgia. On March 10th, 2011 McKenzie was ordained by Bishop Earl Johnson as a pastor.

Further, Pastor McKenzie is the Founder and Director of the Dancing Preachers International Annual Dance Conference, wherein she brings together the nations through worship. She also serves as Creative Director for the professional dance company, Dance Nia, a school providing dance classes to inner city youth. Blazing trails, she is the first liturgical dance minister to receive a major book distribution with Eurotard for "Dance With A Purpose," endorsement deal for a garment line and to design a dance sneaker called "idance."

Pastor McKenzie is a renowned author of three books: The all time best seller for dance books entitled Dance with a Purpose, Saul's Armor Doesn't Fit, and her latest release, From Bankhead to Buckhead: Turning Your Life Around in One Year. McKenzie was the Ecumenical Advisor for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC,) an organization founded by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Sabrina has faithfully served the Georgia State House of Representatives as the Director of Faith & Clergy Day. She was also on the "Big Rich Atlanta" reality television show, which aired on the Style Network.

In March Pastor Sabrina McKenzie choreographed the Reinhard Bonnke Crusade at the Phillips Arena, with 40 thousand attendees and several hundred souls that gave their lives to Christ. Today she is the executive producer of the Dancing Preachers Reality Show which airs on Impact Network and travels around the world training Worshipers. As philanthropist Pastor Sabrina McKenzie advocates for two organizations which she founded called Debra Ann Women's Network (DAWN) and Celebrities Against Domestic Violence. Blessed with a beautiful family, Pastor Sabrina is a single mom and the proud mother of three beautiful children, Anandi, Khidhar and Imani McKenzie.

Sabrina McKenzie is a Celebrated Pastor, Business Woman, and Television Personality. Affectionately known as "The Dancing Preacher", McKenzie is the founder and the Executive Producer of Dancing Preachers International and the Founder of the Liturgical Dance Day. She is best known for her role in creating one of the most celebrated liturgical dance ministries, the International Dance Commission (IDC), which has gained international acclaim since its inception in 2005. Under her leadership, the organization has grown from 40 members to over 2,780 members worldwide, which includes 40 chapters. A trailblazer in her own right, she is the first liturgical dance minister to receive an endorsement deal for a garment line, to design a dance sneaker called "idance" and a major book distribution with Eurotard for "Dance With A Purpose." Her newest book project, "Leading In A Man's World," is set to release on October 1, 2019. McKenzie recently announced her newest roll as the star of the new BRAVO television show "In A Man's World" produced by Viola Davis. Each episode of "In a Man's World" will follow a different woman as she goes about her daily life as a pioneering woman in male dominated industries.

As humanitarian and advocate for women and children, Sabrina McKenzie Co-Authored and championed the "Equal Rights Amendment" legislation in the Georgia House of Representatives in 2018 and is also the founder of several organizations designed to influence policy and bring awareness to domestic violence. In addition, each organization and cause strives to encourage, empower, and inspire women worldwide. The organizations include:

- National Taskforce Against Domestic Violence.
- Epic Women Leadership.
- Georgia Domestic Violence Awareness Day.
- Celebrities Against Domestic Violence.
- Debra Ann's Women's Network.

Through her countless efforts to be a driving force of change, McKenzie has been featured in national media platforms such as CNN, Essence, The New York Times, NBC, Rolling Out, Fox, CBS Atlanta, and more.

In addition to being a woman of impact through her compelling multifaceted platforms that are a combination of arts, advocacy, mass media, and ministry, Sabrina will extend her reach to politics. McKenzie was the Ecumenical Advisor for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), an organization founded by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. She has faithfully served the Georgia State House of Representatives as the Director of Faith & Clergy Day. McKenzie will officially run for State Senate in 2020 and continue her fight for women's rights.

Committed to empowering women to use every trial and tribulation to move forward, Sabrina is currently available as a keynote speaker for female empowerment and inspirational events. For more information or media inquiries please contact PR@sabrinamckenzie.org

Bravo Network Presents

“A Man’s World”

Watch Pastor Sabrina McKenzie
On October 15th!!

Executive Produced by Academy Award Winning
Viola Davis

Womens Activists

Social Justice scholar championing the Equal Rights Amendment for women to receive equal pay for equal work.

Best Selling Author

Her latest book "Leading In A Mans World," (a practical guide to help Women shatter the glass ceiling," and the #1 Best Seller is "Dance with a Purpose" a book designed to instruct praise dancers worldwide.

TV Personality & Radio Personality

Watch Pastor Sabrina McKenzie On Bravos New Docu Series "Man's World," Tuesday October 15th. She also does the political commentary for the Radio One Syndicated Darlene McCoy Show & the Executive Produces Dancing Preachers" televised Conferences.

Book Sabrina For Your Next Event

Pastor Sabrina McKenzie has a passion for Winning Souls and is an Woman's Activists and Social Justice scholar who advocates on behalf of Women and Children. As a Bestselling Author and International Dancing Preacher, this Power House has personally coached, mentored and impacted the lives of thousands of Women. Her multifaceted platform is a compelling combination of the arts, advocacy, mass media and, of course, ministry.

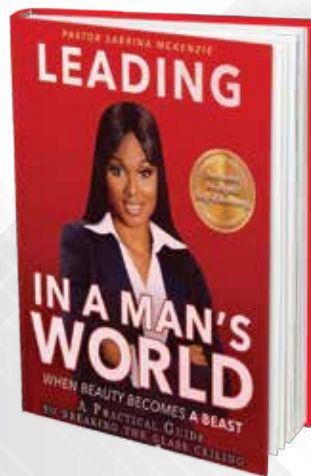

She is also a celebrated Pastor, business woman, and television personality.

Bookings@sabrinamckenzie.org
704-641-2420

Business Woman

Helping thousands of people secure financial freedom and transform their lives by assisting with the restoration of their credit.

PASTOR
Sabrina
MCKENZIE

For Bookings Contact:
Shanita James

Bookings@sabrinamckenzie.org
704-641-2420

All Media Inquiries
Pr@sabrinamckenzie.org

www.sabrinamckenzie.org
www.dancingpreachers.com

